

K-LOVE keeps me connected to local events I would not otherwise find out about. If K-LOVE were not part of our community there would be a "disconnection" of the Body of Christ (denominational & nondenominational) in our area. It is very difficult with the multitude of churches to keep apprised of events, prayer, & praise by mail or via computer. It is a key informational tool for Christians & Christian families.